

Tim Dai

209-1050 Howie Ave, Coquitlam, BC
Canada T: 778883-3772 E: timdai2015@gmail.com

- 8-month internship at SAP as an associate product manager
- 8-month Internship at RIM as a competitive intelligence Associate
- 8-month Internship at HSBC Software Development Centre in project management
- Visionary and have passion to contribute in delivering the next-generation software
- Good at bridging the gap between products and customers' needs
- Love generating creative solutions by thinking out-side-the-
- Strong technical prowess, especially in algorithms; passion for user experience
- Experience and good at working in cross functional environments
- Good knowledge in C++, Java, HTML, and Objective-C
- Degree in Electrical Engineering specializing in Software Engineering
- Good presentation and communication skills – member of Toastmaster club
- Innovative – won as top 5 in UBC "Bright Idea Competition" in a team of three
- Awarded at HSBC for delivering several tasks in parallel on time and in high quality

SAP Vancouver | Associate Product Manager in Accessibility

Aug 2012 – Present

- Contribute to developing a comprehensive vision for SAP's BusinessObjects business intelligence portfolio that meets the market, competitive, and customer requirements
- Assist my manager(s) in defining release criteria for the suite and interacting with validation teams to ensure they are met
- Conduct technical investigations; Research and specify requirements
- Develop and deliver demos and presentations for internal stakeholders and customers

Research In Motion | Competitive Intelligence Associate

Aug 2011 – Apr 2012

- Identified as one of the high potential employees by the company and reassigned to a special program – Competitive Intelligence Team; originally hired as project coordinator
- As a member of a global team, gathered, analyzed and distributed intelligence of our competitors which supported RIM executives in making strategic decision
- Managed a competitive device acquisition program with a quarterly budget of $150K and facilitating the strategic development and positioning of RIM products
- Self-started project: took initiative to redesign the entire device acquisition program which already running for 5 years. Results: increased the efficiency by 30%
- Elected one of a 29-person council that serves over 450 interns across RIM
- Published and edited RIM internal Weekly Newsletter with more than 3000 audience
- Performed testing for Blackberry Apps as a critical project

HSBC Software House | Project Management

Aug 2010 – Apr 2011

- Awarded with certificate for the Employee of the Month for taking extra effort to deliver elegant, creative and high quality assignments for multiple projects under tight deadline
- Worked in server application development team that develops banking applications for HSBC Bank Canada and 70 other countries, consisting more than 300 members globally
- Worked closely with BA to develop Banking Application prototypes in JavaScript and HTML under tight deadline and delivered the product on time and in good quality
- Exposed to both the theory and real world challenges of Project Management by working closely with two experienced project managers throughout the work term
- Successfully drove an important project in Vendor Management that involves senior managers, BA, Testing, Engineering Leads; earned recognition from the team
- One of the founders of "intern community "at HSBC; helped creating a wiki page, forum and a manager's hand book for new intern hiring
- Successfully conducted several presentations to the team with good presentation skills – audience oriented, entertaining, instructive, concise, and good visual effects (PPT)

Software development Project | Project Manager
(CMPT 275 Software Engineering I)

May 2010 – Aug 2010

- Lead, motivated and collaborated in a team of 5, building an amazing iPhone application: design, implementation and testing of the software
- Elected as the project manager; kept the team organized, did planning, explored everyone's talent and got the best performance out of the team
- Managed to meet deadlines by making and executing realistic plans
- Coordinated and participated in brainstorm session with the team members to bring solutions when we hit road blocks
- Motivated team members when they lost interest in the project; Helped them to regain interest by first listening to their deep concerns and issues
- Participated in Coding and testing of the software in Objective-C
- Presented, promoted and demonstrated our final product using good visual effect in

University of British Columbia

Completed

- Bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering

What I Do For Fun

- iSports – 2 favorite sports are soccer and motorsports
- iRead – 7 habits of highly effective people and the Lean Startup
- iFuture – up-to-date with innovations from Apple, Google, Microsoft, etc